Waikiki rooftop restaurant will renovate

Pacific Business News (Honolulu)

An iconic Waikiki restaurant has extended its lease at the Ilikai Hotel and plans to upgrade.

Sarento's Top of the "I," which has been at the Ilikai for 18 years, plans to renovate its interior and offer live music featuring local, national and international musicians.

Sarento's and landlord iStar Financial, which took back the hotel and its commercial spaces in foreclosure, also plan to create an entry vestibule inside the Ilikai lobby just for Sarento's customers. In addition, they plan to renovate the glass elevator that takes diners directly to the rooftop restaurant.
